

Music for Autism, Melmark New England and the Boston Symphony Orchestra proudly present

*Interactive Concerts with Cynthia Meyers, piccolo
Steven Laven, cello
Susan Hagen, bass*

*Saturday, June 18, 2011
Performances at 1.00 PM and 3.00 PM*

*Melmark New England
School Gymnasium
461 River Road
Andover, MA 01810*

For more information, please visit www. MusicForAutism.org

Cynthia Meyers has been a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra since 2006. She has been the principal piccolo of the Houston Symphony and is the former principal flutist of the Omaha Symphony.

Steven Laven has been active as a performer and teacher for 20 years. In addition, his compositions have been played in venues across the country.

Susan Hagen is a substitute player in the Boston Symphony Orchestra and is an active free-lancer and has performed with the Boston Pops/Pops Esplanade Orchestra, Emmanuel Music, and New England String Ensemble, among others.