AN INTERACTIVE CONCERT

for Individuals with Autism and their Families featuring

John Arthur Greene from Broadway's Matilda joined by other Cast Members from the Broadway Hit

JAG, as we affectionately call him, captivated the crowd at our 2010 fundraiser at Toys“R”Us, and spotlighted at an interactive concert at the Mid Island Y in 2012 which was a standout experience for us as part of the Linda Rodgers Emory Concert Series. He currently performs eight times a week in Broadway's Matilda and recently starred as Riff in the recent Broadway revival of West Side Story. In addition, he has an active cabaret and night club performance track record at such esteemed venues as 54 Below, Joe's Pub and the Metropolitan Room. He has a tremendous amount of creativity and the talent to captivate a wide range of audiences at M4A events, on Broadway, and beyond.

September 28, 2013 @ 12PM

The McCarter School
331 West 25th Street
New York, NY, 10001
