This concert is the fifth of the Linda Rodgers Emory Concert Series generously underwritten by the Richard and Dorothy Rodgers Fund of UJA-Federation.

Music for Autism is raising public awareness and enriching lives through autism-friendly interactive concerts developed specifically for individuals with autism and their families. The concerts, held in the United States and the United Kingdom, feature professional musicians, including Tony Award winners and Grammy-nominated classical artists.

Music for Autism concerts are fully subsidized and free for all individuals with autism and their family members, but RSVP's are essential. Please RSVP under the “Concert Calendar” on www.musicforautism.org (preferred) or by calling 877-863-7473
