

proudly present
AN INTERACTIVE CONCERT
For Individuals with Autism and their Families

featuring

Brass of Peace

Brass of Peace is a select group of talented High School Students who audition to participate in an enriched musical experience. Led by Sylvia Alimena, hornist with the National Symphony Orchestra, the concert will feature lively and upbeat music, with distinctive beats and sounds. Don't miss this opportunity to attend a unique family experience.

For more information please visit www.musicforautism.org

Sunday, February 12, 2012

1:00 pm

The Ivymount School

11614 Seven Locks Rd.

Rockville, MD 20854

*This concert has been generously underwritten
by Lisa A. Olson and Roger S. Hillas, Jr.*

Music for Autism is raising public awareness and enriching lives through autism-friendly interactive concerts developed specifically for individuals with autism and their families. The concerts, held in the United States and the United Kingdom, feature professional musicians, including Tony Award winners and Grammy-nominated classical artists.

Music for Autism concerts are fully subsidized and free for all individuals with autism and their family members, but RSVP's are essential. Please RSVP under the "Concert Calendar" on www.musicforautism.org (preferred) or by calling 877-863-7473