

proudly present
AN INTERACTIVE CONCERT
For Individuals with Autism and their Families

featuring

An Afternoon of Songs and Fun

Join us at The JCC in Manhattan for An Afternoon of Music as part of the Reelabilities Film Festival. Featuring Matt Leisy (currently starring in the Fantasticks) and Lauren Thomas, they promise a varied selection of songs from Broadway and beyond.

Music for Autism is raising public awareness and enriching lives through autism-friendly interactive concerts developed specifically for individuals with autism and their families. The concerts, held in the United States and the United Kingdom, feature professional musicians, including Tony Award winners and Grammy-nominated classical artists.

Sunday, February 12, 2012

12:00 pm

The JCC in Manhattan

334 Amsterdam Avenue at 76th Street
 New York, NY 10023

This concert is part of the Linda Rodgers Emory Concert Series generously underwritten by the Richard and Dorothy Rodgers Fund of UJA-Federation.

For more information please visit www.musicforautism.org

ReelAbilities strives for inclusion of all people. Individuals needing accommodations to participate should contact the screening venue directly as soon as possible. ASL interpretation, Live Audio Description, and information in Braille are available upon request. All films are captioned and all venues are wheelchair accessible.

Music for Autism concerts are fully subsidized and free for all individuals with autism and their family members, but RSVP's are essential. Please RSVP under the "Concert Calendar" on www.musicforautism.org (preferred) or by calling 877-863-7473