

proudly present
AN INTERACTIVE CONCERT
For Individuals with Autism and their Families

featuring

Clara Yang & Henry Williford

Henry Williford (flute) and Clara Yang (cello) are currently students at the Shepherd School of Music at Rice University in Houston, Texas. As active chamber musicians they have reached a wide variety of audiences across the country. Together they will present music ranging from the baroque era to the most contemporary of compositions.

For more information please visit www.musicforautism.org

Music for Autism concerts are fully subsidized and free for all individuals with autism and their family members, but RSVP's are essential. Please RSVP under the "Concert Calendar" on www.musicforautism.org (preferred) or by calling 877-863-7473

Saturday
April 21, 2012
1:00 pm

The Westview School
Largent Hall
1830 Kersten Dr.
Houston, TX

Music for Autism is raising public awareness and enriching lives through autism-friendly interactive concerts developed specifically for individuals with autism and their families. The concerts, held in the United States and the United Kingdom, feature professional musicians, including Tony Award winners and Grammy-nominated classical artists.