AN INTERACTIVE CONCERT

For Individuals with Autism and their Families

featuring

Presto! Music & Magic

Presto!, a string trio, presents programs that combine music, magic and memorable storytelling to entertain and educate children about string instruments and the music they play. Join violinists Karen Lowry-Tucker and Elizabeth Pulju-Owen and cellist Drew Owen as they play the music of Mozart, Beethoven and others, with feats of magical fun throughout. Learn about the different instruments of the string family, the importance of hard work in achieving one's goals, and the value of cooperation!

April 20, 2013

1:00 PM

The Ivymount School

This concert is the first of the Alan Paul Memorial Concert Series generously and lovingly sponsored by his friends and family.

Music for Autism is enriching lives and raising public awareness through autism-friendly interactive concerts developed specifically for individuals with autism and their families. The concerts, held in the United States and the United Kingdom, feature professional musicians, including Tony Award winners and Grammy-nominated classical artists.

Music for Autism concerts are fully subsidized and free for all individuals with autism and their family members, but RSVP's are essential. Please RSVP under the "Concert Calendar" on www.musicforautism.org (preferred) or by calling 877-863-7473
