AN INTERACTIVE CONCERT
for Individuals with Autism and their Families featuring
The Guidonian Hand

We loved our concert with The Guidonian Hand in March so much, we've invited them back! The Guidonian Hand is America's leading modern trombone collective. This adventurous ensemble collaborates frequently with living composers and gives fresh voice to classical repertoire, juxtaposing music of the past with modern works.

The Guidonian Hand is Mark Broschinsky, Will Lang, Sebastian Vera, and James Rogers.

This concert is part of the Linda Rodgers Emory Concert Series generously underwritten by the Richard and Dorothy Rodgers Fund of UJA-Federation.

Music for Autism is enriching lives and raising public awareness through autism-friendly interactive concerts developed specifically for individuals with autism and their families. The concerts, held in the United States and the United Kingdom, feature professional musicians, including Tony Award winners and Grammy nominated classical artists.

Music for Autism concerts are fully subsidized and free for individuals with autism and their family members, but RSVP's are essential. Please RSVP under the "Concert Calendar" on www.musicforautism.org (preferred) or by calling 877.863.7473.

ADMISSION IS FREE.
